MARKEL ANNOUNCES ROSEMONT PARTNERSHIP

Richmond, VA, June 4, 2018 — Markel Corporation (“Markel”) (NYSE: MKL) and Chas Burkhart announced today the formation of Rosemont Investment Group, LLC, (“Rosemont”), a company established to provide permanent capital solutions to asset and wealth management firms.

The newly formed Rosemont will build on the history of Rosemont Investment Partners, LLC, a private equity fund manager founded and operated by Chas Burkhart. Over the past 18 years, Rosemont Investment Partners, LLC, has made 30 investments across all facets of the investment management industry. Going forward, all fund activities and assets of Rosemont Investment Partners, LLC, will remain under their current structure. Additional terms were not disclosed.

Headquartered in Conshohocken, Pennsylvania, Rosemont will specialize in providing capital to high quality asset and wealth management businesses considering internal recapitalizations, generational transfers, management buy-outs, spinouts, selected new company formations, and other unique transactions. Additionally, Rosemont will provide significant value-add to its partners, as appropriate, through its sounding board approach and expertise on key aspects of the investment management business including competition, marketing and distribution, valuation, compensation architecture, and other critical business issues.

Chas Burkhart, Rosemont’s founder and CEO, said, “I am thrilled to be in business with Markel. They bring a superb reputation, substantial capital, and a very similar culture and investment orientation. I’ve been working on the best way to establish a permanent capital business for some time, and the partnership with Markel brings everything we need and value.”

Markel, through its subsidiary Markel Ventures makes long term investments in high quality companies. “When first introduced to Chas and his team, we were immediately impressed by their depth of knowledge and reputation within the investment management industry”, said Tom Gayner, Co-CEO, Markel Corporation. “Markel has been in and around asset and wealth management firms for a long time, and we’ve seen firsthand the challenges faced by the entrepreneurs that built them. With Rosemont, we now have the ability to create the enduring solutions needed by those organizations to allow them to serve their clients for generations to come.”
