Alan I. Kirshner, Executive Chairman, commented, "Comprehensive income and growth in book value for the first nine months of 2017 were driven by outstanding performance in our investment portfolio and demonstrate the value of having diversified operations. Our underwriting results were impacted by high levels of catastrophes, but with our strong balance sheet, we are well-positioned to respond to the claims of our insureds. We continue to see positive growth across several product lines within our insurance operations while maintaining our focus on underwriting discipline. Within our Markel Ventures operations, we completed the acquisition of Costa Farms during the quarter, which further expands the diversity of our portfolio of companies."
